Mr. W. Park Armstrong, Jr.
Special Assistant, Intelligence
Department of State
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Armstrong:

Reference is made to your letter of 24 March requesting 25X1 budgetary support for your Fiscal Year 1952 NIS Program in the amount of [redacted].

We are pleased to inform you that we have made provision for these additional funds in our Fiscal Year 1952 budget presentation. We cannot, of course, definitely commit such funds pending action by the Bureau of the Budget and the Congress on our Agency budget estimate for that Fiscal Year.

We will inform you immediately upon receipt of information of final action by the Congress and the President on our budget estimate.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

WALTER B. SMITH
Director
